

42nd Annual Conference and Business Meeting

Great facilities, entertainment, training and fun filled weekend was had by those that attended the 42nd Annual Conference and Business Meeting that was held at the King's Pointe Resort in Storm Lake on April 11-12-13, 2014. Immediate Past President Scott Mack was the conference chairperson.

The Board of Directors meeting was held on Friday morning, allowing all of the board members to help set up for the conference on Friday afternoon. Later in the day, as the other guests arrived, many were able to greet old friends that they had not seen since the last conference.

Friday evening, everyone was able to meet in the ISRLOA hospitality room and visit and enjoy the company of those that they may not have seen since the last conference. Music and dancing on Friday evening was provided by Turn It Loose, a DJ from Storm Lake. Many also enjoyed some of the local restaurants in the Storm Lake area.

Saturday morning began with registration and the opening ceremony. President Quinn Turner opened the 42nd Annual Conference and Business Meeting by calling for the presentation of the colors by the Buena Vista County Sheriff's Reserve, followed by an opening prayer. After welcoming everyone President Turner then introduced Conference Chairperson Scott Mack, who then welcomed everyone to Storm Lake. Several gave a welcome to the attendees including (continued on next page)

President Quinn Turner

Conference Chairperson Scott Mack

Storm Lake Mayor Jon F. Kruse

Storm Lake Chief Mark Prosser

Buena Vista Co. Sheriff Doug Simons

Mayor Jon F. Kruse, Police Chief Mark Prosser and Sheriff Doug Simons.

The morning's activities finished with district meetings and the annual business meeting, which included reports of officers, business of the association and the election of a new 3rd Vice President.

The Saturday afternoon seminar was "Where the Fight is, is where you Fight. The Eric Stein Shooting."

Saturday evening began with the annual banquet. After the banquet everyone was entertained by Comedian Buzz Sutherland.

Sunday morning started with a brunch, at which time the new 3rd Vice President, Mike Hartman of Muscatine County SO was introduced. The trophies from the 2013 shoot were presented to the winners by ISRLOA Chief Range Officer Ted Kamatchus and Shoot Chairperson Bob McHugh.

The Outstanding Unit Award was presented to the West Des Moines Police Reserve.

The conference was well attended and many enjoyed an educational and fun-filled weekend. Once again, exhibitors were on hand to show the latest equipment in law enforcement. The ISRLOA also had display tables showing many highlights of the association from the last 40 years.

In the spring of 2015, the 43rd annual conference will be held in Des Moines.

The Registration Table

The gun raffle was popular.

The winner was Andy Davis, a former Urbandale Reserve Officer

The ISRLOA Display tables were popular

Visiting before the Opening Ceremony

Conference Banquet Attendees

Many enjoyed the banquet on Saturday evening

Buena Vista County SO

Muscatine County SO

Atlantic PD

President Quinn Turner and Patty Turner

Randy and Jody Leventhal, Urbandale PD

ILEA Director Arlen Ciechanowski, wife Patty and Buena Vista County Sheriff Doug Simons

Saturday Night Entertainment/Guest Speaker

Guest Speaker ILEA Director Arlen Ciechanowski

Entertainer Buzz Sutherland

Entertainer Buzz Sutherland and Doug Simons

Doing the dance

Everyone enjoyed the Hospitality Room and Friday and Saturday nights

2014 Conference Training Seminar

Buffet line for Saturday Banquet and Sunday Brunch

Buena Vista County presents the Colors

Jeff Hackwell receives his trophy from
ISRLOA Chief Range Officer Sheriff Ted Kamatchus

Mike Hartman helps to pass out the door prized on Sunday morning

Marshall County Sheriff's Reserve
2013 state reserve team shoot winners

Outgoing President Quinn Turner gives the gavel to incoming President Bob McHugh

West Des Moines Police Reserve
2013 Outstanding Unit Award winners

President Bob McHugh presents the "President's Plaque" to the new Immediate Past President Quinn Turner for serving as ISRLOA President for 2013