

44th Annual Conference and Business Meeting

Good facilities, entertainment, great training and fun filled weekend was had by those that attended the 44th Annual Conference and Business Meeting that was held at the King's Pointe Resort in Storm Lake on April 9-10-11, 2016. Immediate Past President Bob McHugh was the conference chairperson.

The Board of Directors meeting was held on Friday morning, allowing all of the board members to help set up for the conference on Friday afternoon. Later in the day, as the other guests arrived, many were able to greet old friends that they had not seen since the last conference.

Friday evening, everyone was able to meet in the ISRLOA hospitality room and visit and enjoy the company of those that they may not have seen since the last conference. Music and dancing on Friday evening was provided by Turn It Loose, a DJ from Storm Lake. The Atlantic reserves provided games in the lobby that all enjoyed.

Saturday morning began with registration and the opening ceremony. President Amy Johnson opened the 44th Annual Conference and Business Meeting by calling for the presentation of the colors by the Atlantic Police Reserve. After welcoming everyone President Johnson then introduced Conference Chairperson Bob McHugh, who then welcomed everyone to Storm Lake. Several gave a welcome to the attendees

(continued on next page)

President Amy Johnson

Conference Chairperson Bob McHugh

Atlantic PD Color Guard

Storm Lake Chief Mark Prosser

Atlantic Chief Steve Green

including Storm Lake Chief Mark Prosser and Atlantic Chief Steve Green.

The morning's activities finished with district meetings and the annual business meeting, which included reports of officers, business of the association and the election of a new 3rd Vice President.

The Saturday afternoon seminar was "The Jamie Bueting Story" and was presented by Webster County Sgt Luke Fleener and DCI agent Jim Thiele.

Saturday evening began with the annual banquet. The guest speaker was Clay County Sheriff Randy Krukow. After the banquet everyone was entertained by Comedian Fred Bevill.

Sunday morning started with a brunch, at which time the new 3rd Vice President, Scott Mack of Buena Vista County SO was introduced. The trophies from the 2015 shoot were presented to the winners by ISRLOA Chief Range Officer Ted Kamatchus and Shoot Chairperson Doug Goebel.

The 2015 Outstanding Unit Award was presented to the Urbandale Police Reserve.

The conference was well attended and many enjoyed an educational and fun-filled weekend. Once again, exhibitors were on hand to show the latest equipment in law enforcement. The ISRLOA also had display tables showing many highlights of the association from the last 45 years.

In the spring of 2017, the 45th annual conference will be held.

The Registration Table

Getting registered

Below: district meetings before the annual business meeting

Conference Banquet Attendees

Many enjoyed the banquet on Saturday evening

2016 Conference Highlights

Many enjoyed the games in the lobby Friday night

Turn'n It Loose provided the music for Friday night

Guest speaker Sheriff Randy Krukow

Saturday night entertainer Fred Bevill

Webster County Sgt Luke Fleener instructor for Saturday training session

DCI Agent Jim Thiele instructor for the Saturday training session

Scott Mack From Storm Lake wins the Rifle that was raffled off

President Amy Johnson presents Immediate Past President Bob McHugh with life membership

Linn County Sheriff's Reserve 2015 state reserve team shoot winners

Outgoing President Amy Johnson gives the gavel to incoming President Doug Goebel

Urbandale Police Reserve 2015 Outstanding Unit Award winners

President Doug Goebel presents the "President's Plaque" to the new Immediate Past President Amy Johnson for serving as ISRLOA President for 2015