

46th Annual Conference and Business Meeting

Good facilities, entertainment, great training and fun filled weekend was had by those that attended the 46th Annual Conference and Business Meeting that was held at the Stoney Creek Hotel in Sioux City on April 6-7-8, 2018. Immediate Past President Doug Goebel was the conference chairperson.

The Board of Directors meeting was held on Friday morning, allowing all of the board members to help set up for the conference on Friday afternoon. Later in the day, as the other guests arrived, many were able to greet old friends that they had not seen since the last conference.

Friday evening, everyone was able to meet in the ISRLOA hospitality room and visit and enjoy the company of those that they may not have seen since the last conference. Those attending also enjoyed an evening of playing bag games.

Saturday morning began with registration and the opening ceremony. President Mike Hartman opened the 46th Annual Conference and Business Meeting by calling for the presentation of the colors by the Woodbury County SO Color Guard. After welcoming everyone President Hartman then introduced Conference Chairperson Doug Goebel, who then welcomed everyone to Sioux City. Several gave a welcome to the attendees including Woodbury County Sheriff Dave Drew and Sioux City Police Chief Rex Mueller.

(continued on next page)

Conference Chairperson Doug Goebel

President Mike Hartman

Woodbury County SO Color Guard

Sioux City
Chief Rex Mueller

Woodbury County
Sheriff Dave Drew

The morning's activities finished with district meetings and the annual business meeting, which included reports of officers, business of the association and the election of a new 3rd Vice President.

The Saturday afternoon seminar was "Snare The Impaired Driver" presented by Iowa State Trooper Bryan A. Beckman.

Saturday evening began with the annual banquet. The guest speaker was Cherokee County Sheriff Jerod Clyde. After the banquet everyone was entertained by a comedian.

Sunday morning started with a brunch, at which time the new 3rd Vice President, Mike Schleimer of Harlan PD was introduced. The trophies from the 2017 shoot were presented to the winners by ISRLOA Chief Range Officer Joel Phillips and Shoot Chairperson Randy Leventhal

The 2017 Outstanding Unit Award was presented to the Atlantic Police Reserve.

The conference was well attended and many enjoyed an educational and fun-filled weekend. Once again, exhibitors were on hand to show the latest equipment in law enforcement. The ISRLOA also had display tables showing many highlights of the association from the last 46 years.

The 47th Annual Conference and Business Meeting will be held in the spring 2019.

The Registration Table

Silent Auction items

Sioux Sales was a displayer

Glock firearms displayed at the conference

Conference Banquet Attendees

Many enjoyed the banquet on Saturday evening

2018 Conference Highlights

Saturday night entertainer at the Banquet

Hospitality room

Guest speaker Cherokee County Sheriff Jerod Clyde

Iowa State Trooper Bryan Beckman

The Friday evening bag games were enjoyed by all

"Snare The Impaired Driver" was the Saturday afternoon seminar

The conference attendees enjoy the buffet line

ISRLOA Chief Range Officer Joel Phillips gives the shoot trophy to Mike Schleimer

Linn County Sheriff's Reserve 2017 state reserve team shoot winners

Outgoing President Mike Hartman gives the gavel to incoming President Randy Leventhal

Atlantic Police Reserve 2017 Outstanding Unit Award winners

President Randy Leventhal presents the "President's Plaque" to the new Immediate Past President Mike Hartman for serving as ISRLOA President for 2017