

2026 SEMINAR INSTRUCTOR

Lou Savelli, Homefront Protective Group

Mr. Savelli retired in 2004 as one of the most decorated officers in the history of the NYPD. Mr. Savelli was twice honored as the NYPD Supervisor of the Year and named one of “NYPD’s Top 10 Most Effective Leaders” among all ranks of the more than twenty thousand supervisors within the NYPD.

Earlier in his career, prior to creating and leading the Terrorism Interdiction Unit, and the Citywide Anti-Gang Enforcement Unit, Mr. Savelli was a member of the New York Drug Enforcement Task Force and specialized in the investigation of money laundering cartels and international drug trafficking organizations, including the Cali and Medellin Cartels. He was also a member of the Organized Crime Control Bureau, Narcotics Division, where he conducted undercover operations and investigated major criminal organizations. As a member of the NYDETF, his unit held the record for the world’s largest cash seizure in a drug case.

Mr. Savelli has trained and consulted for law enforcement agencies within and outside the United States, and has provided specialized training for the United States Military and is the president of Homefront Protective Group, a Law Enforcement Training and consulting company.

Attention Members:

We would LOVE door prizes (BIG and small) for our 2026 Conference! Hats, gift cards, can koozies, anything to make our conference more FUN!! You can bring them with you to the conference, or please get in touch with a board member to get them delivered!

